

Asking for Help on Independent Work

1. Make a mark next to the question or problem you don't understand.
2. Write down your question next to the problem or on a piece of paper.
3. Go on to the next problem.
4. If you don't understand the directions to an entire activity, mark the top of the page.
5. Place all work that you have a question on in one pile for each subject.

Asking for Help on Independent Work

1. Make a mark next to the question or problem you don't understand.
2. Write down your question next to the problem or on a piece of paper.
3. Go on to the next problem.
4. If you don't understand the directions to an entire activity, mark the top of the page.
5. Place all work that you have a question on in one pile for each subject.